 VETERAN or QM OF THE YEAR *****

VETERAN or QM OF THE YEAR is selected annually by the Past Department Commanders Association of Oregon, V.F.W. during the Department Convention.

Veteran or QM of the year must have five years in the V.F.W., and QM must have served five years as a Quartermaster to qualify.

Veteran or QM of the year qualifies for the honor by having performed over and above that is expected of him, whether as a Post Officer, or as a Post member in the rear ranks. But preferably not the Post Commander. QM qualifies for the honor by showing their knowledge of the financial responsibilities and duties of this office. It is also for the person who just does the work day after day in one of the most demanding offices of the Post and seeks no recognition other than the financial success of the Post.

Veteran or QM of the year is selected as a Comrade who has been particularly active and faithful to their V.F.W. obligation, duties and program during the current program year.

Veteran or QM of the year must have been nominated by their own V.F.W. Post.

Veteran or QM of the year is known in their community as typifying V.F.W. because of their devotion to the organization.

Veteran or QM of the year projects public good will to the credit of V.F.W.
