HONORING THE PAST WHILE EMBRACING THE FUTURE

VOL-84 NOVEMBER-DECEMBER 2026 NUMBER 6

MORE THAN A CLUB: THE HEART OF THE VFW AND AUXILIARY

While standing in line one morning to buy coffee, I overheard two people talking about the Veterans of Foreign Wars. They wondered whether the organization was slowly fading away. Neither seemed to know much about what the VFW actually does, and one thought it was simply a club where veterans could go to get away from people.

That couldn't be further from the truth.

Being part of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Auxiliary means being part of something much bigger than a club. It means standing alongside those who have served our country, supporting their families, and honoring the sacrifices made to preserve the freedoms we enjoy today.

Post 1324 Commander Bryan Smith and Quartermaster Frank West fold the flag during the Honor Guard ceremony at the dedication of the new Gold Star Memorial at Willamette National Cemetery.

The VFW and Auxiliary are made up of extraordinary people who continue to support veterans, their families, and their communities. They advocate for veterans' benefits through legislative efforts on Capitol Hill, help maintain the final resting places of fallen comrades, and assist veterans as they navigate the often-complicated process of seeking disability benefits. Across Oregon, Posts and Auxiliaries work to strengthen their communities, serving veterans and civilians alike.

Looking back through the years, it is true that some Posts have faced declining membership or reduced activity. But that is not the end of our story. It is an opportunity to look ahead, reconnect with our communities, and remind people why our mission matters.

In today's world, it is more important than ever to carry forward the traditions of camaraderie, patriotism, and service to our fellow Americans. Making a difference does not always require a grand gesture.
Sometimes, it begins with a simple conversation, a helping hand, a visit to someone who could use some company, or an invitation for someone new to get involved.

Post 922 and its Auxiliary welcome the community to their annual Cowboy Breakfast ahead of the Pendleton Round-Up. Pendleton, OR - September 19, 2026

Every act of service matters. Every connection strengthens our communities. And every member who chooses to participate helps carry our mission into the future.

Veterans Day, observed on November 11, reminds us that honoring our veterans means more than pausing to recognize their service. It also means continuing to support them long after the celebrations and ceremonies have ended. The spirit of Veterans Day lives on in the everyday acts of service, compassion, and camaraderie that bring us together throughout the year. The VFW and Auxiliary have an opportunity to put that spirit into action, not just on one day, but every day.

As the holiday season approaches, take a moment to reach out to your community and show what being part of the VFW and Auxiliary is all about. Share your stories, invite others to participate, and look for opportunities to serve those around you.

Keizer, OR - Keizer Gold Star Families Memorial Dedication - February 7, 2026

We are all part of a much larger story, woven together by service, sacrifice, friendship, and a shared commitment to something greater than ourselves. Like the threads of a tapestry, each of us contributes something unique.

Together, we create something far stronger and more beautiful than any one of us could create alone.

The future of the VFW and Auxiliary is not simply something we wait for. It is something we build together.

Photos were shared with permission from the Posts they represent. Some featured activities were discovered through publicly available social media posts. The photos included in this issue are not intended to represent all the wonderful work being done throughout Oregon. If your Post has photos of community events or activities, please submit them for consideration in future newsletter issues. We'd love to showcase more of the great work happening across our state!

Happy holidays as we move toward the end of the year!

The student submission deadlines for Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen have passed, and I want to thank all the Posts, chairpersons, teachers, and volunteers who worked to encourage student participation. It is always heartwarming to hear the essays these students write. Their words remind us why these programs are so important. I look forward to recognizing our winners at Mid-Winter in January.

November 11 is Veterans Day, a time to remember and thank all veterans who have served and those who continue to serve our country. Without their sacrifices, we would not be the country we are today. Thank you all for your service!

Western Conference is just around the corner, November 5–8, in Arizona. This is where the western states come together to discuss concerns they are facing and who they would like to represent them at the national level. If you have never attended, I encourage you to consider going sometime in the future.

A lot of information was shared during our four Officer Training Schools. Comrade Bert Little did a great job organizing training at four locations around the state, giving our members the opportunity to learn about our programs, website, and officers' duties. Thank you, Bert, for making this happen!

To continue your education, we also offer monthly Zoom training on the first Tuesday of each month at 7:00 p.m. Our next three sessions are:

- ·November 3:
  - Cubbies – Document storage on the website, presented by Theresa Dearman
- ·December 1:
  - Community Service Reports (CSR) – How to enter reports, presented by Theresa Dearman
- ·January 5:
  - Membership, presented by Michelle Hurley

I hope to see you at one or more of these training sessions!

Mid-Winter is coming up quickly, January 22–24, at the Riverhouse in Bend, Oregon. This is where we come together to recognize and celebrate our Voice of Democracy, Patriot's Pen, and Teacher of the Year winners. Be sure to go online and make your reservations.

The opening meeting and awards banquet will be held on Saturday, January 23. If you arrive early, we are arranging a tour of the Central Oregon Veterans Ranch, the special project of the Department Commander and Auxiliary President. This will give you a firsthand look at the important work they do.

We're also having a little friendly competition to see who can raise the most money for this worthy cause. Whichever side raises the most money, the other side's leader will have to wear a chicken suit at State Convention! Post donations can be made through the VFW state website. So, let's get those donations coming in. I know which side I'm rooting for!

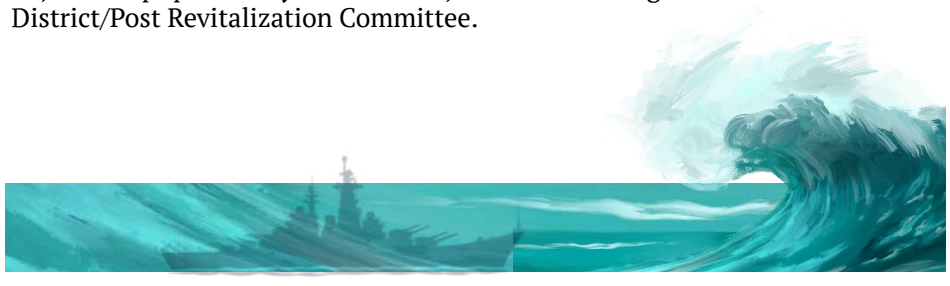

We are also looking forward to a meet-and-greet on Friday, January 22, beginning at 6:00 p.m. More details will follow!

Now for some scary words: Redistricting.

I know everyone has heard that word, and everyone is ready for a fight.

No one wants to move or play the district/post shuffle.

So, to help put everyone at ease, I am renaming the committee the District/Post Revitalization Committee.

The committee's job will be to define what makes a healthy district or post and help those that need assistance. The committee will work with Post, District, and Department Commanders to find the best possible solutions to help struggling Posts and Districts become healthier and stronger.
If you would like to serve on this committee, please contact me.

Membership is one of the largest obstacles many of our Posts face in achieving All-American or All-State status. But why is that?
Our membership goal is based on the number of members we had at the end of the previous membership year. If we can get all our annual members to renew, reaching 100% should be achievable. Of course, we also need to recruit new members to replace our fallen comrades and continue growing our organization.

We can recruit new members, but why can't we keep the ones we already have?

I challenge each Post to establish a mentorship program that makes new members feel welcome and part of the VFW family. If you find something that works, share it with others. And remember, if you need help, you can always call the Department. We will do our best to assist you.

The next few months are filled with holidays: Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's. Slow down a little and spend time with family and friends. Cherish the time you have together. Then, let's hit the ground running in the new year and work toward achieving our goals.

Honoring the Past While Embracing the Future,
Joseph J. Steller

GUIDING PRINCIPLES OF MEMBERSHIP

Greg Arnold
State Sr. Vice Commander

For this year's Membership Program (2026-2027) under the Welcome and Philosophy section there are eight Guiding Principles for this Membership year.

(These can be found in the Department of Oregon's Official Roster & Bylaws, under Membership Programs. Which can be accessed on the Departments website.)

1. Upgrading our yearly members into Life Members.

2. Using today's Technology and Community Engagement.

3. Support National and Department Programs.

4. Train and Mentor Future Leaders.

5. Encourage Knowledge Sharing.

6. Communicating at All Levels.

7. Working closely with our Auxiliaries.

8. Conduct Wellness Checks (aka Buddy Checks).

I would like to expand some on item 8 – Buddy Checks.

The VFW is a large family with a large diversification of members. We do not want anyone to fall between the cracks. It is our responsibility to check on our fellow comrades to make sure they are OK and help them if needed. We do this because that is what a family does!

The Vancouver VFW Post 7824 has an excellent guide concerning conducting Buddy Checks on its website, I thought I would share it, unedited. You may be well experienced in contacting our fellow members or this could be all new to you. The below guidelines should be helpful in conducting Buddy Checks.

How to Conduct a VFW Buddy Check

A VFW Buddy Check is a simple, personal outreach to a fellow veteran — by phone, text, email, video, coffee, or in person — to connect, listen, and offer support, with the goal of reducing isolation and encouraging access to resources when needed.

What a Buddy Check Is

In the VFW context, a Buddy Check is peer support, not counseling or an investigation. It's about connecting, listening, and following up to show a veteran they matter . It can be part of national initiatives like Buddy Check Week but should be done year round

Step by Step Process

1. Prepare

- Choose someone you've served with or known locally.
- Keep crisis and VA resource numbers handy (e.g., Veterans Crisis Line: 988 then press 1, text 838255, or 202 959 TAPS).
- Decide on your channel (call, text, email, visit).

- 2. Connect

- Start naturally: "You crossed my mind, and I wanted to see how you're doing."
- A text or voicemail still counts — it's about showing care, not demanding a reply.

- 3. Listen

- Use open questions ("How have things been lately?").
- Allow silence, avoid rushing to solve, and respect their pace and privacy.
- Ask if they'd like to explore resources together.

4. Follow Up

Agree on a specific next contact (e.g., "I'll check in on Friday").
If you promise to call, visit, or send info, do it.

- Best Practices
  - Be intentional: Set a goal (e.g., one check in per quarter per member).
  - Use multiple channels: Not all veterans answer calls; try text, email, or social media.
  - Avoid transactional contact: Don't reach out only for dues or events — make it about well being.
  - Recognize signs of distress: If you suspect immediate danger, call 911; otherwise, offer to connect them to professional help
  - Keep it personal: Focus on the veteran, not a checklist.

- Sample Opening & Follow Up Messages
  - Opening: "Hey [Name], it's [Your Name]. You crossed my mind, and I wanted to check in. How have you been doing?"

- Offering support: "No pressure to explain anything you don't want to share. I'm here to listen. Would it help if we looked at some resources together?"
- Follow up: "I'm glad we connected. I'll check back on [day]. If you want to talk before then, please reach out."

Why It Matters

- Buddy Checks interrupt isolation, reinforce camaraderie, and can be life saving .

Even one sincere contact is valuable — you don't need to reach ten people to make a difference

Tip: VFW posts can coordinate Buddy Check Week (Sept. 21–25, 2026) but should maintain ongoing outreach.

As you gain experience in performing Buddy Checks you will develop your own style, the above guidelines are just that: recommended guidelines. The important thing is getting in touch with our members, letting them know that the VFW Department of Oregon, Districts, and Post care about them.

QM/ADJ's Corner

FROM THE DESK OF THE ADJUTANT

Brandy Olmstead
Dept. Adj/Quartermaster

As we move into the final months of 2026, I would like to share a few important administrative reminders to help our Posts stay current with Department and National requirements.

Post Liability Insurance
Under Section 709 of the National Bylaws, Posts that operate a canteen, clubroom, or other facility must maintain appropriate liability insurance. This requirement applies whether the Post owns or rents the facility.
Both the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and the VFW Department of Oregon must be listed as additional insureds on the policy.

Please ensure that a current Certificate of Insurance is uploaded to your Post's Cubby. When your policy renews or changes, remember to upload the updated certificate.
Even if your Post does not operate a facility, I encourage you to review your insurance needs and consider liability coverage appropriate to your Post's activities.

Department Headquarters Address Update
As a reminder, Department Headquarters relocated from Portland to Salem in March 2025.

If your Post maintains insurance policies or other accounts that still list the former Portland headquarters address, please contact your provider to have the information updated to the current Salem address.

This is especially important for insurance policies naming the Department as an additional insured, as notices and policy correspondence need to reach the correct location.

Officer Eligibility Documentation

Under Section 216 of the National Bylaws, Post Adjutants are responsible for maintaining documentation establishing the eligibility of elected and appointed Post officers.

Please ensure that your Post's officer eligibility records are complete, current, and available for review during inspections. Maintaining these records is an important part of your Post's permanent administrative files.

Annual Post Inspections
All Posts should have completed their annual Post inspection by now. If your Post has not yet been inspected, please contact your District Commander as soon as possible to schedule your inspection.

These inspections help ensure that our Posts are meeting their administrative and organizational responsibilities.

Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen Reporting Deadline
November 15, 2026, is the deadline for Posts that did not use ScholarsApp to enter their Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen participation information into the VFW National Dashboard. If your Post conducted either program outside of ScholarsApp, please ensure your information is entered into the National Dashboard by November 15 so your Post receives proper credit for its participation.

Thank you to all of our Post and District officers for the time and effort you dedicate to keeping our organizations running smoothly. Your attention to these administrative responsibilities helps strengthen the Department of Oregon and allows us to better serve our veterans, their families, and our communities.

And together, we can do great things!

QUARTERMASTER'S CORNER

IRS Form 990 Filing Reminder
It's time to make sure your Post's annual IRS Form 990 has been filed!

If your Post operates on a fiscal year of July 1 through June 30, your Form 990 is due November 15, 2026. Posts operating on a different fiscal year should verify their applicable filing deadline and ensure they are current.

Not sure what your Post's fiscal year is? Open your Oregon Spiral Roster and locate your Post's information. Find your Post's EIN and note the color used to highlight it. Then turn to the last page of the Post Information section and match your EIN's color to the filing schedule.

Once you've filed, remember to upload a copy of your Form 990 filing confirmation or applicable return to your Post's Cubby.

Special Quartermaster Training – Form 990-N
Not sure how to file your Post's Form 990-N (e-Postcard)?

Join us for a special Quartermaster Zoom training on Thursday, November 12, 2026, at 7:00 PM Pacific. We'll walk through the filing process step by step, including what information you'll need.

To join, visit the Department of Oregon website and navigate to Members Only → Enter Member Web Now → Training to access the Zoom link.

Quarterly Audit Reminders
Quartermasters, please work with your Post Trustees to ensure they have the financial records, bank statements, and supporting documentation needed to complete their quarterly audits.

Under Section 218 of the VFW Manual of Procedure, the Trustees are responsible for conducting the audit and preparing the Trustees' Report of Audit. The completed report must be signed by the Trustees and Post Commander.

If your Post's July–September 2026 quarterly audit has not yet been submitted, please ensure it is completed and uploaded to your Post's Cubby as soon as possible.

The October–December 2026 quarterly audit is due no later than January 30, 2027.

Bonding Reminder
The August 31 deadline for Quartermaster bonding has passed. If your Post or District has not yet completed its bonding requirements, please take care of this immediately.

All bonding applications received by Department Headquarters have been processed. If you submitted an application but have not received your bonding certificate, please email me with information about how you submitted the application and how payment was made so we can investigate.

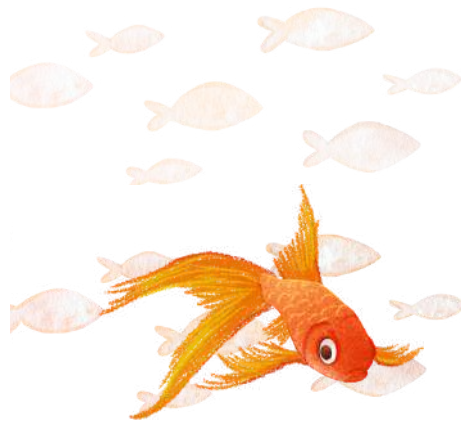

If your Post or District obtains bonding through a company other than the one used by Department Headquarters, proof of bonding must still be submitted.

Posts should upload their proof of bonding to their Post Cubby. Districts should email their documentation to ADJ@VFWOR.org.

Bonding forms are available in the Members Only section under Quartermaster Forms.

All-State Program Donation Reminder
Posts working toward All-State recognition are reminded that contributions to Voice of Democracy, Patriot's Pen, and Teacher of the Year must be received by Department Headquarters no later than November 15, 2026, to qualify for All-State.

Please review your Post's contributions and submit any outstanding donations before the deadline to ensure they are credited toward your All-State qualification.

HOW TO BE A VFW MENTOR

Bert Little
Past Department Commander

Mentorship: Should be used all year round from Post, District, and Department levels. A mentor should guide and advise rather than dictate, micromanage, or solve every problem for the mentee.

What is mentoring? Mentorship is a trusted, voluntary partnership where an experienced individual guides a less experienced person's long-term personal and professional growth.

Just because you are no longer holding a position you should still be mentoring your predecessor in the correct operation of that position.

Why should the VFW use mentors? The VFW is a fraternity brought together by a common experience. We are committed to certain values, including concern for fellow veterans. We must do all we can to train those individuals who will lead this organization in the future.

What does being a VFW Mentor entail?

- They should understand VFW values, have an interest in VFW culture and be willing to serve as a leader.
- It is important to the success of the effort to identify a regular time and place and stick to it. True leadership involves commitment and discipline.
- You need not be a great expert on VFW history or policies. Just discuss each element from your own perspective, using your own experiences.
- Encourage your mentee by introducing him or her to other leaders and active members. Encourage these other members to share their VFW experience.
- Encourage them to consider accepting an assistant chairmanship and recruiting their fellow veterans.
- Encourage and support your mentee as a candidate for the position they are running for at post, district, or department levels.
- What are the goals of mentoring? A successful mentor will encourage other veterans to become a committed, active VFW member.

MENTORING CURRICULUM

The curriculum is a suggestion of elements that should be covering the job position and duties the mentee is learning to take over. Have guidelines, forms, references and a POC if any questions are needed by the mentee. Set them up for success and give them the necessary information for doing their job that is required by the National Bylaws and Department Programs.

Start now sharing your position duties with the next person interested in moving up in leadership at the Post, District or Department levels.

Judge Advocate's Corner

KNOW THE RULES. KEEP YOUR COMRADES WELL.

Andrea D. Summerlin
Department Judge Advocate

Greetings Comrades,

I started writing this newsletter article as the Department Surgeon, but then midway through, I was elected as your Judge Advocate. Thank you for your vote of confidence, and I look forward to serving you for the rest of the 2026-27 year.

I recommend that officers at all levels obtain a copy of the current podium edition of the Congressional Charter, Bylaws, Manual of Procedure, and Ritual, available through the VFW Store at National Headquarters. You can also download the digital version for free from the National webpage.

The Commander is responsible for enforcing strict observance of the laws and usage of this organization, including Post, District, and Department Bylaws; the Congressional Charter; the National Bylaws; the Manual of Procedure and Ritual; and all lawful orders from proper authorities.

As the Department Judge Advocate, I advise the Department Commander and the Department Council of Administration based on the National Bylaws and Manual of Procedure. I am also available to advise any Post, District, or Comrade. I am no more than an email or phone call away.

As Surgeons, we must prioritize our health, check on our comrades, and help Veterans and their families stay connected to care and support as we close out 2026.

Here are some monthly Comrade Wellness Challenges:

- October | Prevention Starts With You: Schedule an overdue appointment or preventive screening and encourage a fellow Veteran to prioritize their health.
- November | Honoring Veterans Through Action: Make a healthier choice, reconnect with a comrade, and include a Veteran or surviving spouse in your Thanksgiving plans.
- December | No Comrade Left Behind: Care for your emotional wellness, check on someone experiencing grief or isolation, and extend kindness to a Veteran or military family.

Department Membership Events: Year in Review

We have had a great year so far of camaraderie, service, and advocacy across the Beaver State. The Department Membership Committee has led five recruiting events since July (State Fair, Airshows, Pendleton Roundup, and Rose City Comicon), drawing in over 35 new membership applications, donations for the relief fund, as well as over $2,000 earned in hat sales.

For the first time in many years, we have a real operating budget, which goes towards maintaining the booth supplies, as well as purchasing VFW-logo swag, hats, and other items for the Department-sponsored booths.

Thank you to ALL of the volunteers that helped make these events a success! Without you we would not have been able to make an impact in our communities. We challenge everyone to consider volunteering or even setting up their own recruiting events within their Districts. And remember, every day presents recruiting opportunities.

LOOKING AHEAD: 2027 DISTRICT RECRUITING BOOTHS
We had a heavy lift this year conducting Department recruiting events (eight total since March). The Department Membership Committee is currently three members strong, so the focus coming into the new year will shift more towards leading a few key Department-hosted events and then assisting the Districts in hosting recruiting events in their regions.

- The Strategy: Every District is encouraged to identify at least two high-traffic community events for the 2027 calendar year and sign up to host a booth at those events. The Membership Committee will be reaching out to the District leadership by mid-December to assist in getting your events for 2027 scheduled. If you need assistance, please reach out to the Membership Committee (we have a list of potential events across the state and some that may be free or very low cost due to connections we have made).

- Supplies & Assets: The Department has updated booth materials, including the new VFW-logo canopy, banners, tablecloths, square machine, brochures, as well as signup and money tracker templates to help make your event successful. Please coordinate with the Membership Committee for assistance with these items.

- Volunteers Needed: A recruiting booth is only as good as the Veterans and Auxiliary members staffing it. Start building your outreach schedules now so no single member gets burned out.

MEMBERSHIP & RECRUITING: KEEPING OUR RANKS STRONG
Our strength lies in our numbers. To advocate effectively in Salem and D.C., we must maintain and grow our active roster.

- Current Standings: Department is currently at 87.82% (as of 24 October) of our annual membership goal of 101%. Oregon currently needs ~1,350 members to reach that goal. We also have several Posts that are on the verge of closing due to low membership rolls. We have a long way to go so we need your help! Please ensure you are reaching out to at-large and expired/expiring members. You should also be using your Buddy Poppy and every event in your community to recruit members. If you need assistance, we are more than willing to visit your District and discuss recruiting strategies with your members.

- Retention Challenges: We are seeing a trend in lower membership numbers, expiring members, and a lack of recruiting younger and female Veterans onto our rolls. Please check in on your post rosters (your QM has access) and make those phone calls.

- Updates to Policies: National recently put out new guidance regarding changes to membership terminology and accounting as it relates to reinstate and retention numbers. Please review the new rules here: National Reinstate and Retention Update

- The Pitch: When talking to prospective members, remind them that the VFW offers a variety of services and support to Veterans and their families, which include VA claim assistance, local community impact with relief funds and volunteerism, camaraderie, and legislative advocacy.

DEPARTMENT OF OREGON AUXILIARY

Department of Oregon Auxiliary President

HELLO BROTHERS, SISTERS AND COMRADES

November is upon us and thus, the chaos of the holidays is right around the corner. As we enter this festive and often stressful season, I have a few reminders to share.

Please take a moment on November 11th to honor our veterans. I know that many Posts and their Auxiliaries are hosting special events for Veterans Day. Please don't forget to report your events and send us pictures. We love to see what you all are doing, and we would love to post your pictures on our website.

As long as the winter weather holds off, I will be surprising more of our Auxiliaries with a visit. I had so much fun visiting Molalla, Sandy, Sellwood-Breakthrough, Lake Oswego and Pendleton a couple of weeks ago in a whirlwind, epic adventure. Thanks to you all. I had a great time with you. I wasn't quite done yet. The next week I surprised Siletz Auxiliary as well. I had a wonderful time meeting all the lovely ladies that work so hard there.

VERY STRONG REMINDER

Please get your annual dues paid NOW. If we want to earn an extra $400 from National, we need to be at least 95% on December 31st. Let's get this done. I know that we can do it. President's, please call your annual members and ask them to please remit their dues. If they don't want to renew, please ask why. The why matters. It is up to us to know what we can improve to keep our members. You won't know if you don't ask. Don't forget we have a friendly competition with the Post side. My husband, the Department Commander, is going to look so adorable in that replica child's sailor suit.

If you are an Auxiliary officer and an annual member, please pay your dues NOW, if you haven't already done so. If they are not paid by December 31st, you are no longer a member in good standing and will be removed from your officer position. Please don't let this happen, pay your dues immediately.

We keep updating and improving our Department website. We have the members only section up and running now. If you want information on your user name and password, please email me and I will be happy to provide you with that. (The web address for the website is, www.vfwauxor.org) If you have any suggestions on what you would like to see or what you need on our website, let me know. We can make it happen.

Don't forget, our National President, Donna Mills, will be here visiting us in Redmond, January 11th-13th. Details and tickets for the dinner Tuesday night will be on the website soon.

Our Mid-Winter Conference is coming up on January 22nd-24th in Bend at the River House Convention Center. I know I have said this before, but details are coming to the website ASAP. Hang in there and keep checking back.

I am wishing you all a Happy Thanksgiving, full of gratitude and great food. Happy Holidays, whichever ones that you and your families observe. I hope that they are filled with love and lots of joy. Stay warm and healthy until next time.

Loyally,
Terri Steller
Department of Oregon Auxiliary President

UPDATES

HOLIDAY HEART

Theresa Dearman
VFWOR Webmaster & Communications Chair

As we close out 2026, I want to recognize the incredible work Oregon Posts have done this year. Even though many reports are being returned as we all learn the new requirements, remember this: not every good deed is reportable, but every good deed still matters. The heart of our mission has always been service, and that doesn't depend on whether an activity fits a category or earns an approval number. As our report writing skills grow, so does our ability to show the full impact we're already making.

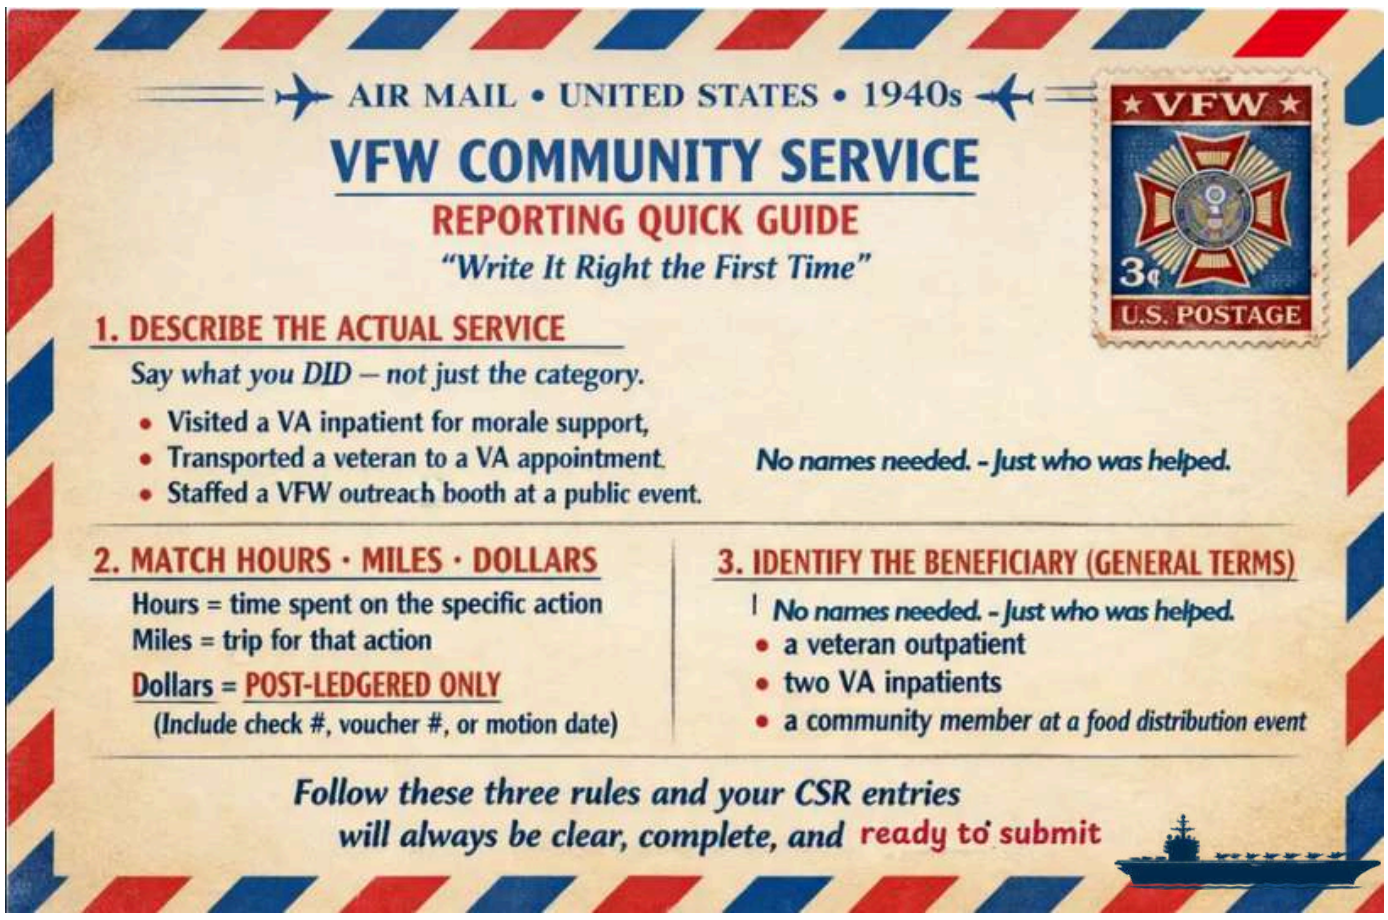

From community outreach to youth programs to supporting veterans facing hardship, our members continue to show what dedication looks like. Every Post — large or small, rural or urban — contributed something meaningful to the fabric of our organization.

This year also asked us to take some risks. We introduced new tools, new communication methods, and new ways of staying connected. Change is never easy, especially in an organization built on tradition, but you showed up. You tried new systems, adapted to new workflows, and helped us move forward together. Thank you for your patience, your willingness, and your trust as we navigated these transitions. It was great getting to see and meet members at OTS this year — I hope that you not only learned something helpful, but also networked and found new buddies to work with for future challenges. For anyone still getting comfortable with the new reporting process, there are helpful hints below — and additional guidance on our Members Only website — to make service reporting easier and clearer.

As we enter the holiday season, let's remember our service members serving downrange and those who cannot be home with their families (and if your Post hosted card-making stations this fall, those Appreciation Cards make perfect toppers for care boxes). The absence of these service members is felt most deeply during this time of year, and our support for them — and for their families — matters.

I also want to look beyond the holidays. January and February can be quiet, cold, and isolating months for many veterans. After focus on parades, family, and holiday meals are over, and the routine returns, some of us feel that drop in energy. This winter, let's lift spirits in one simple human way.

That's why I'm encouraging Posts to join in a January Jubilee tradition— a statewide push to bring a little brightness into our winter months. Your Post's Jubilee can be anything that fits your Post: a chili cook-off, a puzzle night, a "bring a buddy" social, a movie afternoon, Lego build night, or even a casual open house with coffee and conversation. Just try something new with the simple goal: create a warm place for veterans to reconnect after the holiday rush.

Small events can make a big difference. A friendly invitation, a warm room, and a familiar face can turn a quiet winter day into something meaningful.

Thank you for everything you've done this year. Thank you for embracing change. And thank you for continuing to serve with heart. One last reminder — if your Post hosts a January Jubilee, please share your photos and success stories for the next newsletter.

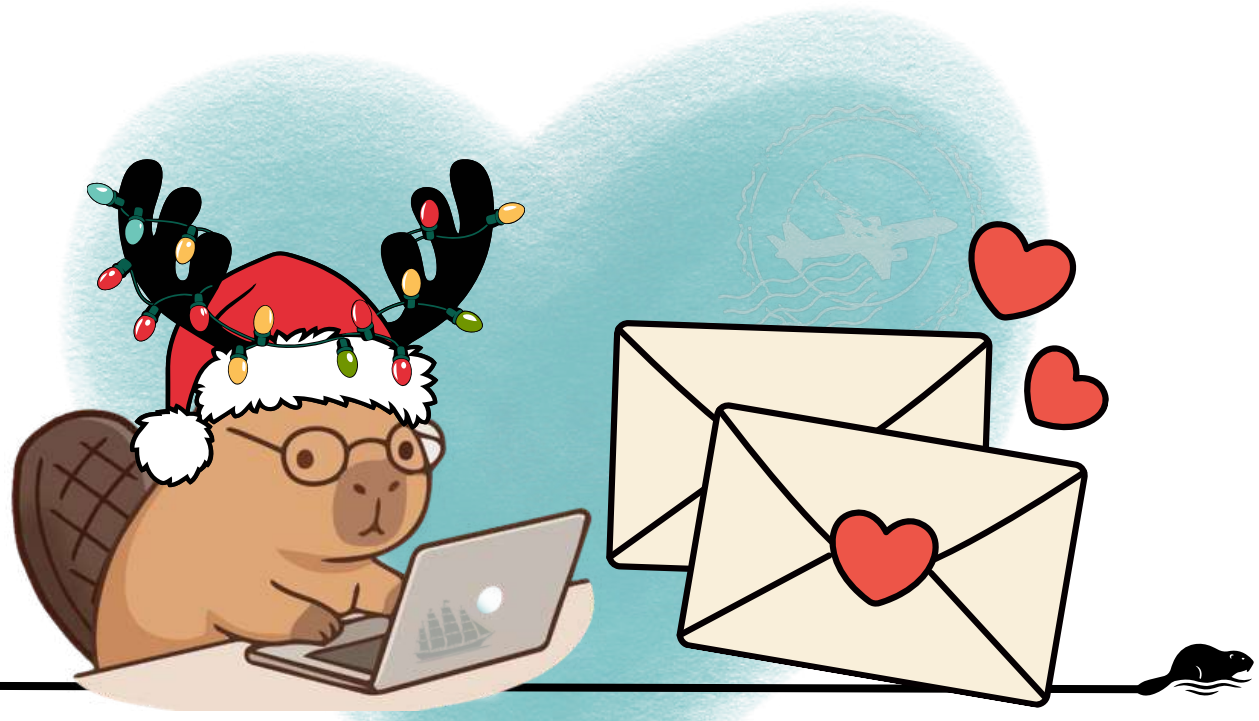

Submissions are due February 24th at:

https://vfwor.org/news/newsletter

I cant wait to see your Jubilee!

Warm Wishes,

Theresa Dearman

A few friendly suggestions:

- Send a Thanksgiving or Christmas card to another VFW Post or Auxiliary in Oregon.

- Consider reaching out to a Post or Auxiliary you don't know well!

Participation is entirely voluntary. This is simply a fun way to bring Oregon's VFW and Auxiliary communities together for the holidays.

Holiday Cards for our Veterans

A SMALL CARD CAN MAKE A BIG IMPRESSION.

HELP US REACH 250 CARDS!

While the holiday season brings plenty of reasons to celebrate, it can also be a difficult time for some.

Send a holiday card to a veteran at a VA hospital to remind them that they are remembered and appreciated.

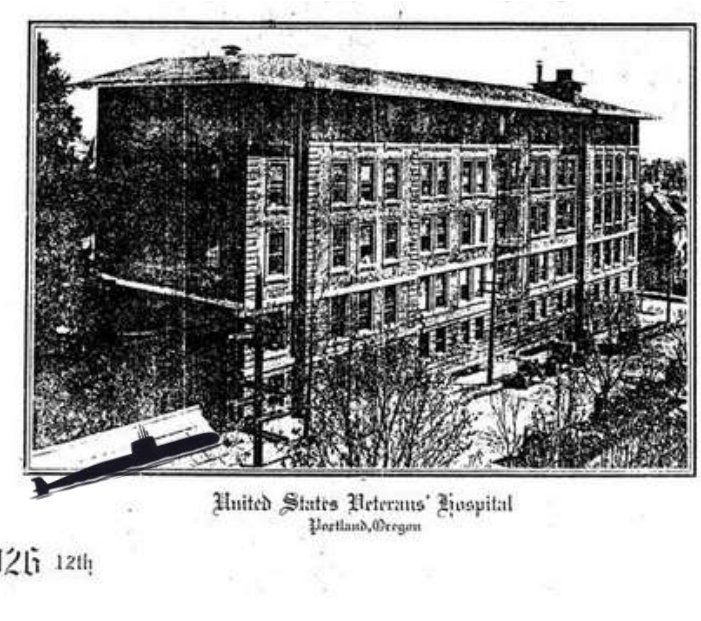

The Portland VA Health Care System is seeking at least 250 Thanksgiving and/or Christmas cards for hospitalized Veterans. VFW Posts, Auxiliaries, and individual members are invited to participate by sending holiday greetings.

"YOU ARE NOT FORGOTTEN"

POW/MIA Remembrance Day was 18 September 2026, the third Friday each September.

For members of the VFW, remembering our POWs and MIAs is more than an annual observance.

The familiar phrase "You Are Not Forgotten" represents a promise! We each should pray, daily, for the families who have veterans missing from their table. Many families mourn for loved ones and wonder what has become of them.

Remember to have your Fallen Comrade Table (Missing Man Table) or chair present at each meeting. Please fly the POW/MIA flag below the US Flag on your flagpole.

NEWS FROM AROUND OREGON

GONE BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN

ONE HEARTFELT MESSAGE CAN MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE

Andrea D. Summerlin

Comrades, let me ask you a serious question. How long would you wait for someone to return home? Perhaps it is a prodigal child who wandered far from the family. Maybe it is a parent who left for work in another city? Or a family member who is serving overseas. How long would you wait? A year? Five Years? Ten Years?

Our family waited over seventy-five years. In June, I was notified by my cousin that a family member, George T. Hill was positively identified by the Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency, better known as DPAA. In this article, I want to share his story: Who he was, where he served, how he was identified, and the way that he was honored during his burial service.

Who was George?

He was my Aunt Florence's younger brother, born on July 15, 1932, in Los Angeles, CA. George had enlisted in the Army at age 17, against his mother's wishes. He was stationed in Japan before being sent to the Republic of Korea when the war began. In the summer of 1950, Hill served in Company B, 3rd Engineer Battalion, 24th Infantry Division.

On August 11, 1950, one and a half months after the war started, George was killed. It was only three weeks after he had turned 18 that he died.

From the battle report and firsthand accounts, we learned that George was one of the few chosen for the patrol mission into enemy territory. Once they came under enemy fire, George was one of the handful who volunteered to stay behind and provide cover so the others could get to safety. In the end, out of the 20 men on the patrol, only five returned alive.

He was reported missing in action on Aug. 11 in the vicinity of Chang-dong, South Korea, near the Naktong River.

With no evidence of his continued survival, the Army issued a presumptive finding of death as of Dec. 31, 1953. The Army declared him non-recoverable on Jan. 16, 1956.

The family didn't have any of this information for many years. In the early 1990's his mother received an unopened box of personal effects the Army had returned. His parents could never face opening that box and admitting that George was finally gone.

His mother always felt he was still Missing In Action and was never able to grieve for him or put him to rest. I have faith that they are together in heaven now, but his service brought closure to the remaining family members and offered hope for families who are still waiting for their loved ones to come home.

Hill's name is recorded on the American Battle Monuments Commission's Courts of the Missing at the Punchbowl, along with the others who are still missing from the Korean War. A rosette will be placed next to his name to indicate he has been accounted for.

How was George finally identified?

On Dec. 18, 1951, two sets of remains were recovered from the Naktong Bulge area of the Pusan Perimeter. At the time, officials could not associate the remains with Hill, so they were interred in the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific, known as the Punchbowl, in Honolulu.

In July 2018, the DPAA proposed a plan to disinter 652 Korean War Unknowns from the Punchbowl. In July 2021, DPAA personnel disinterred the two sets of remains as part of Phase Three of the Korean War Disinterment Plan and sent the remains to the DPAA laboratory for analysis.

To identify Hill's remains, DPAA scientists used dental, anthropological, and radiocarbon isotope analysis, as well as chest radiograph comparison. I am fascinated by how far our identificati on techniques have come in years.

Divine Intervention

A few things made me understand that God had his capable hand in the situation, especially in bringing George home.

When I was stationed in the Republic of Korea in 2003, my mother visited. We attempted to locate the battle area where George was killed but were unsuccessful. The landscape had changed so much since the Korean War. We never gave up hope and kept searching for information.

When I was in Hawaii for the Veterans of Foreign Wars Western Conference in 2024, I had the opportunity to tour the DPAA laboratory. I now know that George was there at the same time I was, waiting to be identified.

Another thing that could only be called "A God Thing" is that the Golden Gate Cemetery in San Bruno is currently full and no longer allows burials. However, the Army found a spot for George. The best part is that he is only three rows over from his parents.

His father was a World War I veteran, and both are Purple Heart recipients. We buried him on July 15th, which would have been his 94th birthday.

Welcome Home

The number of veteran organizations that showed up to honor George was astounding! From the Patriot Guard Riders and the American Legion Riders (Chapter 105 in Redwood City) to U.S. Volunteers of America, Sons of the American Legion (Squadron 105, Redwood City), Honoring our Fallen, Marine Corps League, Bay Area Honor Flight, USO, Army Reserve National Honor Guard, Daughters of the American Revolution, and so many others… they all came to honor a man they didn't know. It was truly overwhelming and brought genuine tears to my eyes!

Do you realize that nearly 81,000 service members are still unaccounted for? There are 7,359 members just from the Korean War, with over five thousand in North Korea. Our country is one of the few in the world that continues to search for the fallen and assist their families actively. Because of this experience, I volunteered as a Project Recover Ambassador to raise awareness of those still missing.

Let me ask the question again. How long would you wait for someone to return home? Our family waited over 75 years, and other families have waited even longer. My call to action for you is to learn more about these POW/MIA service members. Support the families of those still waiting to bring their service members home. Fly the POW/MIA flag on National POW/MIA Recognition Day, which is observed on the third Friday in September.

Lastly, never give up hope of finding those who were Prisoners of War and those still Missing in Action. Keep saying their names and sharing their stories.

Our story proves that even after many years, a service member can be identified and return home to their family. They are gone but not forgotten.

General John J. Pershing, the first Chairman of the American Battle Monuments Commission, famously said, "Time will not dim the glory of their deeds."

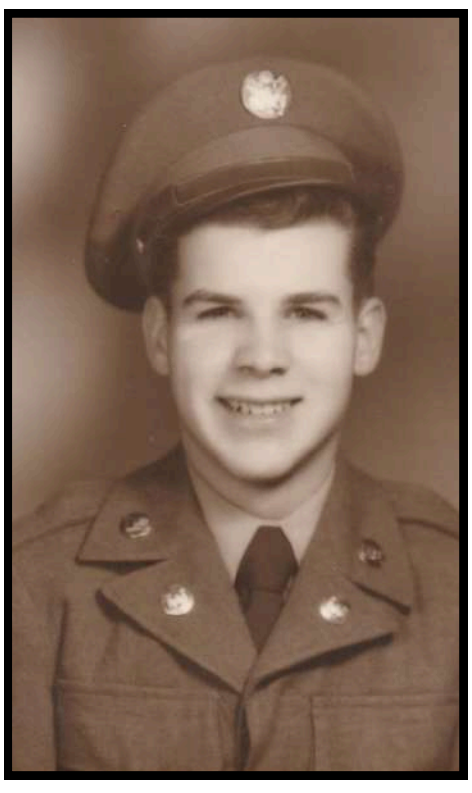

Corporal George T. Hill, Welcome Home. I salute you.

NEVER LEAVE ANYONE BEHIND - MISSION TO FULFILL THE NATION'S PROMISE

A PROMISE THAT DOESN'T END WHEN THE FIGHTING STOPS

The National Commander's 2026–2027 Special Project

In 1984, President Ronald Reagan stood at Arlington National Cemetery to honor an unidentified American serviceman from the Vietnam War. His remarks that day carried a message not only for the nation, but for the families still waiting for answers about their missing loved ones.

"We write no last chapters. We close no books. We put away no final memories."

More than four decades later, those words remain meaningful to the mission of locating, recovering and identifying America's missing service members.

DPAA Emblem
https://www.dpaa.mil/

THE MISSION CONTINUES

The Defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency (DPAA) works to provide the fullest possible accounting for missing American service members and, whenever possible, bring them home to their families and their nation.

Its work is carried out around the world through historical research, investigations, recovery operations and forensic identification. Each case represents more than a name or a number. It represents a service member whose family may have spent decades waiting for answers.

Veterans escort the flag-draped casket of Corporal George T. Hill, whose remains were returned to Oregon through the efforts of DPAA. (See his story on page 9.)

A FIRSTHAND PERSPECTIVE

In March and April 2026, National Commander-in-Chief Cory Geisler traveled with DPAA personnel to Hawaii, Thailand, Laos and Vietnam to see their mission firsthand. During the trip, he witnessed recovery work at a site near Quang Binh Province, Vietnam.

The experience offered a closer look at the dedication and challenges involved in accounting for America's missing. It also reinforced the importance of continued public awareness, support and advocacy for the agency's work.

Now, through his 2026–2027 special project, "Never Leave Anyone Behind," Commander Geisler is asking VFW members to help carry that mission forward.

THE NATIONAL COMMANDER'S CHALLENGE

For the 2026–2027 program year, Posts must make a minimum donation of $75 to the DPAA to meet this year's All-American Post requirement.

This contribution supports the National Commander's special project and helps bring attention to the ongoing effort to account for America's missing service members.

OREGON - THE CALL TO PARTICIPATE

The $75 contribution is a requirement for All-American recognition, but the reason behind the project reaches far beyond a certificate or an award.

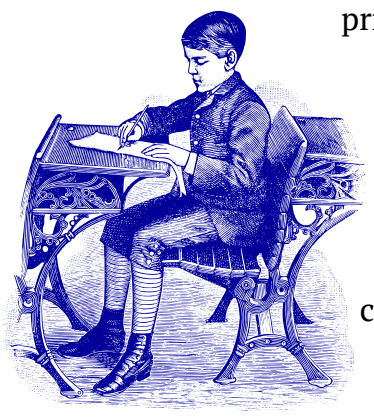

Every missing service member represents a family, a community and a promise that should not be forgotten. The work continues because answers still matter — whether a family has been waiting a few years or several generations.

We hope to see more stories like that of George Hill, featured in Andrea Summerlin's article on page 9. His story is a reminder of why this mission matters and what it means when a missing service member is finally brought home.

We made a promise. The work is not finished. And we must never leave anyone behind.

LEGACY LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Honoring our Legacy Life members* As of October 23, 2026.*

Legacy Life membership gives VFW Life members an opportunity to leave a lasting impression on our great organization and help support veterans for generations to come.

Three prestigious levels of Legacy Life membership are available: Gold, Silver, and Bronze. Each level offers exclusive benefits, while an annual endowment in the member's name is made to their Post, Department, and the national organization.

Legacy Life members can take pride in knowing their contributions help support today's veterans and the veterans of tomorrow. Members may also purchase a Memorial Legacy in honor of a deceased VFW Annual or Life member, helping future generations remember their service and contributions.

Below are the newest members to join the Legacy, along with Legacy Life members who have been called to their final Post.

TAPS-IN MEMORIAM

THIS PAGE HONORS OUR AMERICAN MILITARY VETERANS WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE US. WHILE HISTORY MAY OVERLOOK MANY OF THE BRAVE DEEDS OF OUR GALLANT SERVICEMEN AND SERVICEWOMEN, THEIR MEMORY WILL FOREVER LIVE IN THE HEARTS AND MINDS OF THE FREEDOM-LOVING PEOPLE OF THE GREAT NATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

READ EACH NAME WITH PRIDE AND GRATITUDE, FOR THEY ANSWERED THE CALL TO DUTY, AND NOW THE HONOR AND GLORY ARE THEIRS. THEY GAVE THEIR ALL FOR US, AND THEY ARE NOT FORGOTTEN.
